Dear Families,

Re: Key Worker and Vulnerable Provision in School Week Beginning 8th March 2021

As you will be aware, all learners will be having a phased return to school from Monday 8th March.

Learners who have been accessing provision during this period of lockdown, because they are vulnerable or the children of critical workers, will still have provision in school every day from Monday 8th March but will reintegrate to normal lessons, after testing, with their Year Group on the day they return to school.

For learners in the key worker and vulnerable bubbles, the week beginning 8th March will function as detailed below:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Year 7	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Year 7 return to school	Normal timetable	Normal timetable
Year 8	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Year 8 return to school	Normal timetable
Year 9	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Year 9 return to school
Year 10	Key Worker & Vulnerable provision 8:45 – 2:45	Year 10 return to school	Normal timetable	Normal timetable	Normal timetable
Year 11	Year 11 return to school	Normal timetable	Normal timetable	Normal timetable	Normal timetable

Your child has the option to attend school as normal from 8:45 on the day the rest of their year group returns or to arrive with their form group during the course of the morning as the different form groups arrive to be tested, as detailed in my letter earlier today. We will speak with learners before Friday to ascertain whether they will be arriving at 8:45 or with their peers in their form group later in the day.

Should you wish to discuss this with me, please do not hesitate to contact me at school.

Yours faithfully,
Dr M Potter
