

Islamic Beliefs and Practices

Students will be aware that Christianity is one of the diverse religious traditions and beliefs in Great Britain today. Students will discover this through an in-depth study of: Key beliefs, authority, worship and duties and festivals.

YEAR
11

Theme E: Crime and Punishment

Students will study religious teaching, and religious, philosophical and ethical arguments, relating to corporal punishment, death penalty, forgiveness, and their impact and influence in the modern world.

Theme F: Human rights and social justice.

Students will study religious teaching, and religious, philosophical and ethical arguments, relating to the status of women in religion, the uses of wealth, the freedom of religious expression, and their impact and influence in the modern world

Theme B: Matters of life and death.

Students will study religious teaching, and religious, philosophical and ethical arguments, relating to abortion, euthanasia and animal experimentation, and their impact and influence in the modern world

Theme A: Relationships and families.

Students will study religious teaching, and religious, philosophical and ethical arguments, relating to contraception, sexual relationships before marriage and homosexual relationships, and their impact and influence in the modern world.

Christian Beliefs and Practices

Students will be aware that Christianity is one of the diverse religious traditions and beliefs in Great Britain today and that the main religious tradition in Great Britain is Christianity. Students will discover this through an in-depth study of: Key beliefs, Jesus Christ and salvation, worship and festivals, the role of the church in the local and worldwide community.

YEAR
10

Exploring Islam

A detailed and in depth study of the beliefs and practices in Islam in a modern society.

Ethics

Ethics will introduce students, and allow them to explore, their own opinion, and those of religious believers, in response to ethical issues. These will include issues surrounding sex and families as well as life and death.

Philosophy

Philosophy and religion are fundamental to shaping our ethics. And by shaping us as individuals they shape society as a whole. Students will explore different ethical approaches and the arguments for the existence of God.

YEAR
9

Exploring Christianity

A detailed and in depth study of the beliefs and practices in Christianity in a modern society.

Exploring Judaism

A detailed and in depth study of the beliefs and practices in Judaism in a modern society.

YEAR
8

Exploring Hinduism

A detailed and in depth study of the beliefs and practices in Hinduism in a modern society.

Exploring Buddhism

A detailed and in depth study of the beliefs and practices in Buddhism in a modern society.

YEAR
7